PROFESSIONAL LEARNING PACKAGES

The Islamic Museum of Australia (IMA) provides AITSL aligned professional learning workshops that explore strategies to meet the VTLM 2.0 guidelines, supporting educators to deliver authentic, comprehensive and tailored learning experiences for all students.

For information on specific Curriculum, AITSL and VTLM 2.0 links including codes and descriptions, please email: education@islamicmuseum.org.au

Professional Learning for Educators

The IMA facilitates workshops for educators to create more inclusive and respectful classrooms, promoting a more socially cohesive society.

We have been at the forefront of delivery on cultural responsiveness and supporting teachers to deliver meaningful and authentic learning experiences.

Professional learning can be delivered on-site at your school or at the award-winning IMA, or online via Zoom.

Our packages are individually booked and tailored to suit your needs. All programs are overseen by experts in the field.

CULTURAL RESPONSIVENESS WORKSHOP

The IMA's Cultural Responsiveness Workshop equips teachers with strategies aligned to AITSL standards and the VTLM 2.0, providing a foundational understanding of Islamic faith, culture, history and identities.

This session empowers staff to build a more supportive and inclusive environment for Muslim students and colleagues.

The experience includes a 1-hour guided tour of the Islamic Museum of Australia, exploring our five permanent galleries, followed by a 2.5-hour workshop that:

- Explores core Islamic beliefs and practices,
- Challenges and unpacks misconceptions and stereotypes,
- Addresses the specific cultural and religious needs of Muslims,
- Provides strategies for an inclusive classroom/school community using evidence and real-world examples,
- Features case studies and a Q&A session.

CURRICULUM WITH PURPOSE WORKSHOP

Move beyond ‘checking boxes’ to create meaningful learning experiences. This workshop empowers educators to audit and enhance their curriculum, ensuring alignment with AITSL, the Vic 2.0 curriculum, and the VTLM 2.0.

Through a collaborative framework, staff will evaluate scope and sequences in Humanities, English, and Mathematics to identify gaps and opportunities.

Staff will leave with a clear plan to update units and lessons with authentic resources and inclusive strategies, directly applying AITSL standards.

The workshop focuses on:

- Auditing and identifying gaps in Humanities, English, and Mathematics curricula,
- Planning for inclusion by updating units to reflect diverse student needs,
- Sourcing authentic resources to address curriculum standards,
- Implementing practical strategies with adaptable examples for student access.

Islamic Museum of Australia

Online Education Portal

Discover, Explore, Learn.

The Islamic Museum of Australia (IMA) was developed in part to support core curriculum teaching. Our programs are developed to support schools with curriculum aligned materials to create meaningful learning opportunities for all who engage with us.

The resources on this site have been developed in alignment with the current National, Victorian and NSW Curriculum frameworks. The intention is that they are used to support teachers and students in classrooms around Australia in building greater intercultural awareness and capability.

For this reason, the majority of resources are free of charge. Our catalogue of resources are constantly growing, so if you are looking for something in particular please reach out.

TESTIMONIALS

"My students really enjoyed the experience and rated it at least an 8 or 9 out of 10. Given we are an alternative education setting for students who have been disengaged from mainstream setting in the past (for various reasons) this was really encouraging."

"We loved the day. It was so important for us to come, and we learned so much. The students were very grateful and a number of them wrote about how it completely changed their perception of Islam. Thank you so much for the heart and commitment you give to your work."

"This museum was the best!"

"This museum was amazing!"

"Eye-opening experience that I enjoyed."

"It was enjoyable because I learnt new things about a different culture."

"I really liked it, and I think it was really fun to read about all the different descriptions of each exhibition."
